

A scenic landscape of rolling hills under a blue sky with two butterflies. The hills are covered in green vegetation and stretch into the distance. Two butterflies are visible in the sky, one above the other. The text 'Pip & Jarlath's Wedding' is written in a white, elegant script font, curving across the top left of the image.

Pip & Jarlath's Wedding

enter site

17th April 2010 Bright Victoria Australia

Pip & Jarlath's Wedding

Latest News

04.10.2009: Bright features in The Age today

17th April 2010 Bright Victoria Australia

Welcome to our wedding.

We would like to invite you to join us on our special day in Bright.

We've compiled our photos from Bright along with some hints to help you plan your trip. Click on the icons to the right to discover more.

Please visit our RSVP here as soon as you know if you can come.

We have decided to add a touch of 1920's flare to our wedding. Please visit this page for ideas on what to wear.

Check this page for latest news.

We look forward to celebrating the day with you!

Pip and Jarlath

Pip & Jarlath's Wedding

On a sizzling X'mas Day in 2003,
A spirited Aussie girl met her English husband-to-be,

He was flying high over the mountains of Bright
She was in the valleys pedalling her bike,

Their romance blossomed and to Melbourne he flew,
And now they'd like to celebrate their wedding with you!

count me in!

count me out

If your email editor doesn't open automatically when you click the link above please rsvp via email in the usual way

Getting there

Where is Bright?

From:

Melbourne – 4 hour drive

Sydney – 7 hour drive

London – 24 hour flight

Arriving from o/seas? – The nearest international airport is Melbourne.

Click on the links for maps and detailed directions

Click the links for Maps and directions
from:

melbourne

sydney

london

If you would like to share a lift from Melbourne please email us to register interest and we'll see if we can organise car sharing
or group transport

Please note:

We will be arranging transport to and from your accommodation for the wedding day – so just find your way to Bright and leave the rest to us.

Where to stay

Whether you stay for the weekend or plan a whole week – there are romantic B&B's for couples, cosy cottages for families and friends, budget hotels and some beautiful camping spots for the adventurous.

There are so many beautiful places to stay, both in Bright and the surrounding areas.

Check out the links on this page for some of our recommendations and be sure to have look at our Accommodation Map too. Or give us a call and we can help you decide.

For more options check out www.stayz.com

We recommend you arrange accommodation for the Friday and Saturday night as the celebrations will be starting around midday and the party will be going till late!

We will be providing transport to and from your accommodation on the wedding day so you are free to enjoy the day.

We are planning to book two shared cottages, for bride and grooms side, for the wedding – So if you're keen to join the us please email us and we will give you more info.

budget beds

- The Outdoor Inn (a.k.a. Camp Crusty)

- Budget Motels

- Chest Nut Tree

- Coach House

a small treat

- Apartments On Delaney

- The Odd Frog

a big treat

- The Buckland Studio

- Centenary Peaks

family and group cottages:

- Abby's Cottages

- Knights Cottage

accommodation websites:

- Stayz

- Bright Escapes

- Bright Accommodation

Bright

Why are we getting married in Bright?

Because it is where we first met and because we love Bright and the whole Alpine Region!

Bright is in an alpine playground which we play in all year round- there's something for everyone- For the wild adventurer, the foodie, the wine connoisseur and the kids at heart.

Bright is also famous for it's spectacular autumn colours at this time of year.

Here are some ideas for your stay - Click on the links for more info!

tourist info

- Bright, Victoria
- Bright Escapes

outdoor activities

- Paragliding
- Rock climbing at Mt Buffalo
- Bushwalking the Razorback
- Cycling

food and wine

- Bright Berry Farms
- Gapsted Winery
- Boynton's Winery
- The Big Shed Cafe

